LITERARY REVIEW.

A SUMMARY OF THE LITERATURE FOR THE CURRENT MONTH,

Brief Notices of the Latest Works-Extracts and Comments Upon the Magazines.

EARL OF MAYFIELD.

The Earl of Mayfield has schieved great popularity, seven editions of the book having been exhausted, and the eighth, revised by the author, is now ready. It is the story of a young sugar planter, who in the course of his journey in life, falls in love with a charming widow. In lan-guage and style it has a finish of elegance, and its details are so very cle erly managed that the interest is continuous. The dialogue is excellent the descriptions are vivid and the characters happliy conceived. The opening scenes transpire in our own sunny South, and the beauties of that region are depicted in glowing language. From this country the scene shifts to Italy, with which lovely region of Europe the writer is familiar, and when he appreciates with all the sest of an unaffected, enthusiastic lover of nature. The events in the closing chapters transpire in England. The nobleman whose title gives name to the work, is a private in the Confederate cavalry, with many noble and attractive qualities; the manner in which he discovers his noble birth and woods the loveliest of heroines, Mary Stewart, at length attaining his inheritance, to the surprise of his young bride, we leave for the perusal of the reader, assured that he or she will not consider their time ill-spent. The Earl of Mayfield will be found for sale by all booksellers and news agents, and on all railroad trains, or copies of it will be sent to any one, to any piace, at once, on remitting 75 cents to the publishers T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Pailadelphia, Pa.

HISTORY OF THE BIBLE TRANSLATION. The publishing house of I. K. Funk & Co., 10 and 12 Dey street, New York, have just issued a revised edition of the late Mrs. H. C. Conant's l'opular History of English Bible Translation, with a new preface and additional matter, bringing the history down to the present time, by Thomas J. Conant, D. D., husband of the talented author, and well known Biblical scholar and member of the American Bible Revision Committee. This is a complete history of Bible revision from the days of Wycliffe to the present time. Says Dr. Stanford Holme: "It is interesting as a novel, and beyond all comparison the best work of the kind ever written. It ought to be in everybody's hands." Price, 50 cents in paper,

EHRICHS' FASHION QUARTERLY.

The above named magazine is one of those publications of which the ladies never tire. Season after season it comes to tell its readers in which direction the weather vane of Fashion points-what stuffs and patterns are likely to be most in vogue-what styles are likely to be worn and what prices are ruling in the great Metropolitan retail marts. The summer number, just received, ably sustains the record of its predecessors. The literary department presents a choice selection of useful and entertaining articles. The portion of the magazine devoted more especially to Fashion, gives descriptions not only of the favorite styles in costumes, but also of novities in other departments, such as ladies' underwear, hair goods, summer games, books, &c. The Fashion Quarterly is published by Eurich Bros., Eighth Avenue, New York City, at 50 cents per

Y.), are as follows: The London Quarterly, Edinburgh, Westminster, and British Quarterly Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine. Price, $1 a year for any one, or only $15 for all, and the postage is prepaid by the Publishers.

NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW. The reader must be hard to please indeed who in the diversified contents of the North American Review for June should find nothing to win his attention. First we have an article by the Hon-Hugh McCulloch on "Our Future Fiscal Policy." G'orge B. Loring writes of "The Patrician Element in American Society." Dorman B. Eaton makes a spirited defense of civil service reform; Profesfor W. G. Sumner states very clearly the argument for free ships; Frederick Douglass writes of the "Color Line," Desire Charnay, of "The Ruins of Central America;" Dr. Austin Flint discusses the benefits of vaccination; S. M. Mason asserts the lawful power of the Government to regulate ratiway charges; and finally, Professor E. S. Morse sets forth the evidences of the man upon this centinent in prehistoric times.

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE, Recent political events give especial timeliness to the consideration of the growth of the machine, and the most effective way to "smash" it. It is anyounced that the July number of Scribner will contain the first of a series of important papers entitled "The People's Problem," discussing the subject in a new and vigorous way. The writer, Mr. Albert Stickney, is a well known lawyer of New York City, and though his remedies may be found radical, they have the advantage of being those of one who has given thorough study to the subject in its historical and moral aspects The Supreme Court of New York has granted the order to change the name of the corporation of "Scribner & Co." to "The Century Co."—the order to take effect on the 21st of June. The July issues of Scribner's Monthly and St. Nicholas will have the new corporate imprint.

SOCIETY FOR POLITICAL EDUCATION. The Society for Political Education has just is sued its second economic tract of the series of 1880-81, entitled "Political Economy and Political Science," a priced and classified books on Political, Economic and Social Subjects. It may be of interest to our readers to know the political opinions of the executive committee of the so ciety. Of Democrate there are ten; of straight Republicans, eight; of Independent Republicans, five; and of Independents who are unallied with either party, there are two.

POPULAR SCIENCE MONTHLY.

The following extract from an article in the Popular Science Monthly for June, by Dr. Felix L. Oswald, on "How to Dress Children" is perti-nent and to the point: "The winter dress of an American schoolboy is nearly the best, the summer dress of the average American, French and German nursing about the worst that could possibly be devised. A SOLDIERS' MONUMENT

Presented to the City of Manufeld by One of Her Most Liberal Citizens, Mr. M. D. Harler. On Decoration day Mr M D Harter, formerly f Canton, at present treasurer of the Aultman-Taylor company, of Manefold, G, tendered that city the present of a soldiers' monument, as the foilowing letter, addressed to Dr George Mitchell president of the day, will show : Mansfield, G., May 30, 1881.

Dran Sin—I feel that Richland county has already waited too long for the erection of a monument which will keep alive in the living, the remembrance of the patriotic sacrifices of the dead.

Therefore if it will be acceptable to the Memorial Association, I will give to the community. Solutions Association, I will give to the community a Soldiess monument, which shall be a auplicate of the monu-ment which stands opposite Congress Springs Park at Saratoga. The figure, which is of iron (bronzed), is that of am infantry soldier, and 7 feet in heighth. It was dealgoed and executed under the personal supervision of a committee made up of the officers of the 77th New York and of the division to which that regi-Now York and of the division to which that regi-ment belongs, and is as nearly a perfect representa-tion of the American soldier as I have ever seen. The expense for foundations, pedestal and every-thing else connected with its proper setting will be-paid by myself, for if the gift is accepted, I do not want it attended with any expense to any one. I will co operate with any committee which may be appointed to select site and arrange day for its un-yelling. Respectfully yours.

Respectfully yours,
M. D. HARTER. The gift was accepted and a committee of six appointed to confer with Mr Harter and select a ette and make preparations for the unveiling of $20,064. Handsome Miss D Stroyer, of Linton, h s caused the arrest of the alleged D Stroyer of her happiness, viz , John McLean, son of a wealthy farmer. The story goes that she kept company with McLean until August, 1879, when she gave birth to a beautiful baby. But having once sinned she did not profit by the experience, and last March produced a companion piece to her pretty one of 1879. She claims that McLean is the father of both, and has caused his arrest.

THE New York Herald, that supported Garfield the latter part of the Presidential canvass, now says of the Republican

"Why should not the Republican party go to pieces? Why should any one of its honest voters mourn over its disappearance? It may not be dead at this mo-ment, but it is rotten. It is the creature of railroad and other corporation and monopoly influences. Its most intimate relations are no longer with the people, but with the railroad and telegraph kings, the Jay Goulds, Stanfords, Huntingtons and others of that kind, who own and control its managers and chiefs. To say that such a party, which deliberately chooses Dorsey as one of its public manipulators and unblushingly gives him public dinners; which has protected and honored Robertson, which openly courts the friendship of public plunderers, which, during four years sheltered Brady in his Star route jobberies, and took part of his ains for its campaign fund after the exposures made of him in Congress, to say that such a party, which scarcely conceals its relations with a dozen lobbies, and many of whose public men live by jobs-to say that this party, quarrelspecting the origin and trustworthiness of the ing now over the spoils, ought to live, is scriptures of the New Testament. "Carlyle's absurd. It has lost even the respect for > ally to divide their spoils in private. SENATOR Conkling has received the following dispatch from Ohio: COLUMBUS, O., May 30, '81. You have the good wishes of a hundred thousand Ohio Republicans. The officeholders and officeseekers only have thus far spoken. The voice of the stal-warts was yet to be heard, and that has even come for fair play and equality of rights. They are not so blinded by devotion to the administration as to concede to aid the privilege of using executive patronage to enforce private animosity, or elevate personal favorites and crush the men who led the party to victory. We recognize you as a clean handed statesman, whose record has never been smirched by jobbing and corrup-tion, and we bid you God speed in this

Gen. Beatty gave the "half breeds" in Ohio a good deal of trouble a few years ago, and like Conk, when he puts his foot down, it is there. Unless the 'half breeds' act with discretion, the "hundred thousand" Conkling Republicans will kick out of the traces.

Just at the time when all Europe is astir with the news of martial move-ments in the regency of Tunis, it is curious to read an appeal from the Rev. E.

H. Shepherd, the acting English chaplain in Tunis, for contributions toward the erection in the Church of St. Augustine there of a memerial window to Howard Payne, the author of the sim-ple ballad of "Home, Sweet Home," who is buried in the Protestant cemetery of the town. The memorial will cost about 25 pounds. "I FEEL," said the fat passenger, as the train crossed the Ohio line, "that I am in the land of statesmen. There is a smell of Postoffice in the air, and the low, sweet sound of a Consulate is heard in the dewy distance. I see the shid-owy forms of Marshals yet to be, and out of the dreamy gates of the possible

I see the grand procession of Supreme Judges. It is a dear and favored land, this grand old step mother of Presi-dents." THE whole trouble in the happy family is over the offices. Collector Merritt is to be displaced by Robertson, who bolted Grant, and supported Garfield at the Chicago convention. Robertson is active at Albany, free with promises of office, conditioned on opposing Conkling

"WHEN rogues fall out honest men come to their own," for the rogues are apt to tell the truth of one another. The Democracy of New York should now aim to place that Democratic state in her proper position, at home and in Congress.
